"All our yesteryears"

Burns Monument Centre—Kilmarnock

Do you want to learn about your local area, how people worked and lived in the past, or discover the history of your own house? Or maybe you want to find out more about your past.

Researching your family history is a valuable and extremely rewarding experience. Visitors to the Burns Monument Centre seeking to trace their ancestors have access to a full range of resources. In addition to written records the centre provides a wide range of family history and census records including -

Digital Imaging of the Genealogical Records of Scotland's People online service that allows viewers to access:

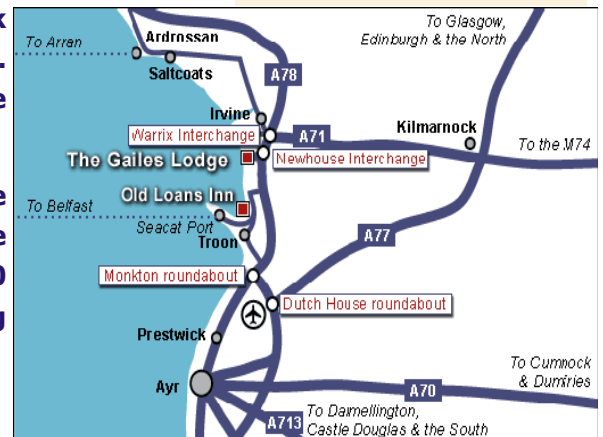

- Births, deaths and marriages in Scotland from 1855
- Old Parish Register (OPR) baptisms/births and banns/marriages from 1553-1854
- Wills and testaments from 1513
- Census returns 1841-1901
- Scottish divorce records from May 1st 1984

On our visit to the Centre, staff will provide us with a tour and brief history of the new archiving premises and also give a short introduction on how to start tracing your own family history.

The evening will commence at 7.00pm followed by a light buffet served just after the tour. The cost is £10 for members and £15 for guests.

To allow the Centre to make the necessary staffing and catering arrangements for our visit, please either book online at www.aabw.org.uk or email admin@aabw.org.uk no later than Wednesday, 14th April 2010. Payments can be made on the night. Please make cheques payable to AABW.

Please note that unfortunately AABW will require to pass on charges for late cancellations made after close of business on Friday, 16th April 2010 or non attendance at the event after having booked.
